Dear Belt Theater Supporter,

I am writing to invite you to sponsor the theater's 2023/24 performance offerings — the 5th annual season series and 3rd annual Beltstock concert.

Given the intimate size of our theater at 114 seats, raising funds can be a challenge; therefore, we are committed to building our annual Beltstock concert into a major fundraising event. It's a bandstand concert presented in the Belt Rodeo arena at Castner Park. Last year's patronage grew 60% to 500+ patrons! We anticipate another growth year as concert-goers learn of our quality family-friendly music presentations.

A flyer is attached of events along with a sponsorship form. Your support directly enables the maintenance and operations of the historic theater and our ability to bring live performing arts to our rural community.

Thank you for your time and consideration, we appreciate it!

Belt Performing Arts Center 2023/2024 Season Series

Season Package

8 shows for $140

Saves $45 off face value

(406) 277-3844 * BeltTheater@gmail.com

Events made possible in part by Montana Performing Arts Presenter Development Program, National Endowment for the Arts, Montana Arts Council & Western States Arts Federation.

Robin Layne & The Rhythm Makers * Sun. 5 Nov 2023 at 7pm ~ $25

Led by Juno nominated percussionist, Robin Layne, and rooted in rhythmic traditions from around the globe, this groove heavy ensemble delivers music that transcends the bounds of tradition. Blurring the lines between jazz and folk, they carve out new territory for the marimba at the forefront of their sonic landscape.

Admiral Radio * Sat. 11 Nov 2023 at 7pm ~ $25

When Coty Hoover and Becca Smith think of their '41 Admiral radio, they picture the folks of that era gathered around their radios at night listening to the evening news, of time shared, imagining a different place and time. As a band, this duo has created a timeless style and classic sound that speaks for itself, with a more natural feel that gets back to the basics of good songwriting and music with heart.

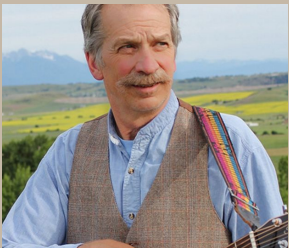

The Steve Olson Orchestra's 5th Annual Christmas Concert

Sun. 10 Dec 2023 at 2pm & 4pm ~ $10 + a canned good for Belt Food Bank
Gifted composer, violinist and pianist, Steve Olson returns home with his talented volunteer orchestra and baritone vocalist, Joel Corda; keeping the season tradition alive with their 5th annual Christmas concert performance!

Wylie Gustafson * Sat. 20 Jan 2024 at 7pm ~ $25

As one critic called him, "The coolest cowpoke around," Wylie Gustafson is an American original. Over the last 33 years, Wylie has performed a refreshing blend of cowboy, western, and traditional country. Wylie's muse is the empty sprawl of his native Montana home where he crafts the words and music that reflect his life on the 4th generation family ranch.

Neal Lewing "Gary Cooper - First, Last and Always" * Sat. 10 Feb 2024 at 7pm ~ $25

Actor, singer/songwriter, recording artist, playwright, poet, storyteller, author and historian offers a nostalgic introduction to one of Hollywood's most endearing and enduring actors, recreating memorable moments, from his first silent films to his dramatic last days, through the written words he spoke. Underscored by music and a socio-economic history of his day, this program illuminates Montana's favorite actor and 20th century America.

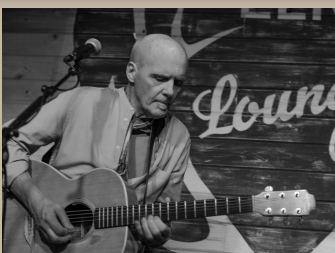

Rebecca Folsom * Fri. 8 Mar 2024 at 7pm ~ $25

Rooted in folk and gospel, singer-songwriter, Rebecca Folsom's songs intimately tell universal human stories. She believes every lyric, every note, every musical collaboration carries the potency to change the world. With her new recording, Sanctuary, Rebecca is on a mission to do that one listener at a time. Moving with ease through her four-octave range she plucks the instrument of the heart with tender fearlessness.

Stringfever * Fri. 12 Apr 2024 at 7pm ~ $25

Coming from a family of musicians it was always likely that the Broadbent boys were going to follow their fathers into the music profession. Giles and Ralph studied at the Royal Academy of Music, Graham at the Royal College. Their Youngest brother Neal was due to study at the Guildhall School of Music but instead he was kidnapped by his brothers to be the cellist in their new group - Stringfever! The World's Most Entertaining Electric Quartet!

Mark Oblinger * Sat. 4 May 2024 at 7pm ~ $25

5-time Emmy winning and Grammy nominated composer and producer, Mark brings his soulful, eclectic blend of folk/pop to the stage, featuring powerful, vocal forward arrangements from his latest release, "High Water Line." Mark's performing roots include stints with chart topping stalwarts Pure Prairie League and Firefall.
