Dear Friends,

"Music is the universal language of mankind," wrote Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, and at the Belt Performing Arts Center, we celebrate this timeless truth.

We invite you to celebrate with us by sponsoring our 7th season of professional, high-quality musical experiences for Belt, Belt School students and the surrounding communities.

For this 2025/26 season, a sponsorship directly supports 20 performances in Belt and Belt Schools, including our summer fundraising concert, Beltstock, at Castner Park celebrating its 5th year!

By partnering with us, you're not just supporting inspirational live music — you're helping preserve the historic Belt Theater as a vital asset to the community and downtown economy. In gratitude, we offer nice bennies to boost your business profile across our events and our digital displays.

Together, we'll keep the music playing and prove that small-town arts are anything but small-time.

James M. Olson

President
